

Council Free Throw

The Sixth Annual Council free throw for youth age 10-14 was at held St Mary's on Saturday, January 22 at 6:30 PM. Assisting Chair and Brother Pat Gilroy were Brothers Mike Bean, Paul Lindburg and Grand Knight John Leighton. Twenty-seven youth aged 10-14 took part in this activity, announced in the bulletins of the 3 Council parishes (St Martin's, St Francis, and St Mary's). All youth were allowed 25 shots from the foul line using the appropriate sized ball. Age group winners were:

girls: Julie Muzzatti (10), Janie Bell (11), Hazel Carnone (12) and Elizabeth McCormick (14); boys: Finn Harty (10), Robert Scanlon (12), TJ Thompson (13) and Patrick Barlett (14).

The event was quite noisy with cheering for others and laughing and shouting. It was obvious that all participants wanted other participants to succeed, a very heartwarming experience. The event lasted about an hour, with parents looking on, and at the end all participants received a certificate of participation signed by the Grand Knight. Two participants, Hazel and TJ, went on to compete at the District and state level. Special congratulations to Hazel for second place in her age group.
